

Leading Communion at Home

While we long to be together on Sunday mornings, our current situation allows us to lead and practice our faith with our families. We want you to be prepared and confident so we put together this guide to help you in the process. This is by no means a requirement. Rather, it's a resource for you to use if you'd like help.

Say: We take communion every week because it's important to always be reminded of what Jesus did for us on the cross. He gave his life so that we could live. Communion is a symbol that allows us to reflect and thank God for sending Jesus so that we may live and participate in His Kingdom forever.

Read: 1 Corinthians 11:23-24

23 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, 24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me."

Say: This cracker is a representation of Jesus' body. His body was broken for us. His body died so that ours didn't have to. Let's eat the cracker together at the same time.

Be silent for a few moments

Read: 1 Corinthians 11:25

25 In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Say: Jesus gave his blood to cover over all our mistakes and sins. And in so doing, he established a new deal that said from then on, if we believe in Jesus, His blood would continue to cover our sins and mistakes. Let's drink the juice together to remember and thank Him.

Be silent for a few moments

Read: 1 Corinthians 11:26

26 For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Say: We remember Jesus death. He gave his life for us... But we also thank Him and praise Him for His resurrection. We believe that He has saved us and we believe that He will come again to fully set up his eternal Kingdom. He is our hope and source of joy.
